PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the Production Center 1P1c.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

Brody Army Barracks is located 2 kilometers (km) south of Brody, covers 150 acres, and is road served from the east by the primary Brody-Zolochev road (Figure 1). A single-track, possibly narrow-gauge rail spur, leads up to the northwest edge of this installation. This line appears to be inactive or possibly abandoned.

This facility (Figures 2 and 3) contains one administration building, multistory and single-story barracks buildings, storage buildings, an oval track, and a small, possibly civilian, housing area.

This installation is also listed as Brody AD Sector Headquarters [redacted]

The installation was covered by eight KEY-HOLE missions between June 1962 and June 1964.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Railroad Service

A single track, possibly narrow-gauge, rail line running 13 km north of Brody passes under the main rail line at Brody. A short spur line leads up to northwest edge of this installation. The line appears inactive or abandoned.

Road Service

The primary Brody-Zolochev road forms the east boundary of this facility. Main entrance is from this road.

Administration and Troop Housing Area

Area D contains one long multistory U-shaped administration building, six long multi-story barracks buildings, one single-story barracks building, and two small unidentified single-story buildings.

General Storage Area

Area E contains nine storage buildings.

Other Buildings

Two miscellaneous buildings and 10 small housing units are located in Area H.

Athletic Field

Area K is a large oval foot track.
